

Private policy

Which data we collect and how we use it.

When you start using our application on your mobile device we may ask you to provide your telephnone number in order to optimize (make it faster and more convenient) registration procedure.

Additionally we may collect information about your location in order to help you find nearest AMT.

This information is stored only on your device, NOT on our servers.

We do not collect any other private information.